A Report on Anti-Ragging Week on 16th August 2024 of Saraswati Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences

College Name: Saraswati Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences

Event Name: Anti-Ragging Week

Report of Event:

The Anti-Ragging Week was successfully observed at Saraswati institute of pharmaceutical sciences with the aim of promoting awareness against ragging and fostering a safe campus environment. As part of the week's activities, an essay competition and a poster-making competition were organized, with the participation of 25 to 30 students. The essay competition and poster making competition focused on the theme "Anti-Ragging". The events saw enthusiastic participation, with students presenting impactful essays and visually compelling posters. All participating students were honored with certificates for their efforts. The week concluded with a renewed commitment to maintaining a ragging-free campus.

Outcomes of Event:

These activities helped students understand the importance of standing against ragging and made them more aware of their role in creating a safe and respectful society. By learning and discussing these values, students are better equipped to contribute to a community where everyone feels safe and respected. This initiative is a positive step towards building a kinder and more supportive environment, both in institute and in society.
