A Report on International Mother Language Day on 21/02/2025 of Saraswati Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences

College Name: Saraswati Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences

Event Name: International Mother Language day

Report of Event:

Saraswati Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Dhanap, was filled with language respect and cultural pride on February 21, 2025, when students gathered to celebrate International Mother Language Day. The occasion was highlighted by lively conversations and engaging activities that highlighted the value of protecting and respecting the mother tongue. The NSS section handled a number of initiatives which highlighted the important role of native languages in forming identity and inheritance, such as encouraging discussion and artistic manifestations. Students enthusiastically expressed how language serves as a deep connection to one's origin and roots in addition to being a medium for communication.

Outcomes of Event:

The event helped students understand more about the social relevance of their native language. Engaging discussions and activities increased respect for language diversity and the importance of conservation. Students were inspired to be proud of their background and to understand language as an important component of identity. The program also helped them improve their communication. Most importantly, it promoted unity, and a dedication to conserving national languages.
