Report

A session was organized by the Saraswati Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences on the topic “Career perspective with steps to achieve success”

The lecture was delivered by Dr. Ankit B. Chaudhry, who began the session by explaining the importance of career awareness and self-assessment. Students were encouraged to identify their interests, strengths and weaknesses before choosing a career path.

Sir highlighted various career options available after graduation and emphasized the importance of continuous learning. Key steps discussed for achieving success included setting clear goals, developing relevant skills, maintaining discipline and adapting to changes in the professional environment. He also stressed the role of soft skills such as communication, teamwork, leadership and time management. Real-life examples and personal experiences were shared to inspire students and help them understand practical challenges in career growth.

The session concluded with guidance on maintaining a positive attitude, handling failures and staying motivated throughout one’s career journey. The session was informative & will be very helpful to the students.
